

Welcome to Technology & Society CS-1000 ONLINE course!!!

Reading this PowerPoint will help to inform you on how this course works and how to complete your week-to-week assignments.

Here is my family
at my daughter's Wedding

Me, daughter Lexi, son in-law Scotty, wife Teresa, and son Hayden

Hello! I am Brent Richter, your instructor for this CS1000 Technology and Society course.

I have been a Professional Engineer for over 25 years. I specialize in New Product Design, Manufacturing, Supply Chain Management and Technology Innovation.

I am very excited to share this online adventure with you and discuss the many social, legal and ethical complexities of technology usage in our society today!

We will be communicating in 2 ways!!

- 1) Wright State PILOT. Complete quizzes each week on Pilot, all written assignments will be turned in to the assigned Dropbox on Pilot, video discussions will be posted on the Pilot Discussion board. You can find the weekly Assignments under the “Content” page on Pilot.

Please note: I will not accept LATE work for full points past the deadline (one week max. will receive a 30% deduction). Please note: Discussions boards are never accepted late. A doctor’s note must be sent to me for any additional time to be accepted.

- 2) Email: Each Saturday I will be sending out an email to give a weekly review on the assignments that week. Please keep in touch with us for any questions or concerns. Please don’t wait until midnight to ask: “What exactly is this assignment about??” Please ask ???’s early!

Please have this book by week 2!
And YES it needs to be the 5th edition.

A Gift of Fire 5th ed. & U.S. version only! Author: Sara Baase -PEARSON
ISBN-13: 978-0-13-461527-1

So EXACTLY
how does this online class
work?

Pilot

On Pilot you will find your Discussions, Dropbox, Quizzes & Assignments. Everything is available on the internet for this course-besides your book. There will be links to extra readings that I will supply on Pilot.

If you find you need extra assistance with an assignment, no problem- we can schedule a time for a virtual appointment online.

Discussion & Feedback

A successful online class is when there is interactive feedback between you & your classmates. You're all be finding ethical solutions to the questions given after each weekly video. Give positive and constructive feedback to 2 plus classmates to their ideas or solutions. Learn to use the chapter readings as resources and express your knowledgeable thoughts to your classmates.
